

6 Find the signal words for the simple present and the present progressive.

Mark the signal words for the simple present in blue and the words for the present progressive in red.

never

every ...

usually

now

always

often

at the moment

today

sometimes

just

7 Simple present or present progressive?

a) Put in the right forms.

1. It's eight o'clock in the morning and Emily wakes up.

But everything is different today.

She usually sleeps (sleep) in her bedroom,

but today she is sleeping (sleep) in a tent.

2. Her dog always eats (eat) his dog food, but at the moment he is running (run) around.

3. Her dad usually makes (make) breakfast, but now he is starting (start) a fire.

4. Her mom always goes (go) to work at eight o'clock, but now she is sleeping (sleep) in her tent.

5. Her brothers often stay (stay) in bed late, but today they are collecting (collect) wood.

6. Her cat usually sleeps (sleep) on her clothes, but today she is sitting (sit) on the sofa at home.

b) Write three more sentences about Emily and her family in your exercise book. (Individuelle Lösung)

get up • stay in tent

write text messages • read book

watch TV • go rock climbing

8 Read what the tour guide says and put in the right forms.

a) Underline the signal words.

b) Put in the simple present or present progressive.

Good morning! Welcome to our Hollywood Movie Star tour. My name is Jim and right now we are driving (drive) up to the Hollywood sign. Every day thousands of people visit (visit) this famous landmark and the tourists always ask (ask) me, " Is (be) it dangerous to go up there?". The answer is (be) no, but it's also forbidden. Our tour always goes (go) along the Walk of Fame. We are just arriving (arrive) there. Look! All the people here are looking (look) for their favorite star. Every year, more famous people get (get) their own star on this street. We are now driving (drive) on a road where some famous people live. We usually start (start) here and hope (hope) to see a star when he or she is just leaving their house. Sometimes we see (see) people behind the gates but we never get (get) too close to the houses.